

Town of New Castle, State of Colorado

Proclamation

TOWN OF NEW CASTLE, COLORADO

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Kathy Kopf moved to New Castle in 2005; and

WHEREAS, Kathy quickly became an active and involved citizen, serving as a Commissioner on the Climate Action Advisory Commission and as head of the River Center's Life Assistance Team; and

WHEREAS, in 2013, Kathy appeared before the Council to recommend that someone take charge of cleaning up New Castle's Main Street to make it more appealing for visitors and residents; and

WHEREAS, the Council enthusiastically supported Kathy's idea and appointed her as the "someone" who would take charge of the clean-up; and

WHEREAS, Kathy quickly organized a large group of eager volunteers who performed major clean-up activities, in the process gaining the help and support of downtown residents and businesses; and

WHEREAS, the Downtown Committee moved on to explore and execute other beautification projects; and

WHEREAS, Kathy has made the decision to move from New Castle, thus depriving the Town of her services;

NOW THEREFORE, the Town Council of the Town of New Castle recognizes Kathy Kopf for her service and honors her as a model of good citizenship.

Let this Proclamation be entered into the official records of the Town

Bob Gordon, Mayor

ATTEST:

Melody Harrison, Town Clerk
