

Town of New Castle, State of Colorado

Proclamation

TOWN OF NEW CASTLE, COLORADO Proclamation

WHEREAS, the River Center has served the citizens of New Castle since 2009; and

WHEREAS, that service has included Angel Tree, Totes of Hope, the Local Network Senior lunch, the Winter Coat Drive, Life Assistance, and Family Education Seminars, among many other programs. Furthermore the River Center regularly provides volunteers for public events and service projects; and

WHEREAS, Lee Price was the founder of the River Center and director since 2011, conceiving of his ministry as one of community service; and

WHEREAS, Lee is a leader who shows by example, always positive, treating everyone he meets as a friend. He faithfully lives the River Center motto "Neighbors Helping Neighbors": and

WHEREAS, Lee has retired from his leadership position at the River Center; and

WHEREAS, Lee is humble, regularly passing any recognition for his service to the members of his River Center team; and

WHEREAS, the Town of New Castle wishes to acknowledge his singular achievements and salute him for his contributions to our citizens;

NOW THEREFORE, the Town Council of the Town of New Castle recognizes Lee Price for his outstanding selfless service and honors him as a model of good citizenship and as a compassionate community servant.

Let this Proclamation be entered into the official records of the Town.

Bruce Leland, Mayor Pro Tem

ATTEST:

Melody Harrison, Town Clerk